LoW-HI more than just an RV park

FRAN KOBLE-CHASE

Entering Deming from east, or west you notice a sign saying “LoW-HI”. Many Demingites might know immediately where it is located, and that is an RV park. It is a lovely park: Trees, flowers, clean restrooms, showers, laundry – wonderful management – volunteer workers to meet your needs.

On the other hand, do they really know we are not just an RV park, but also the International Headquarters for a singles club known as “Loners on Wheels,” which has a membership of about 1,000.

We boast of being the only true singles club in Rving clubs and, one of the requirements of being a member, you must be legally single to join.

Though our membership has dwindled, we still enjoy a happy, fun-filled life having 7am coffee daily together in the bunkhouse swapping yarns, laughing, teasing and enjoying a morning hug. The motto of our club: “Never let them pass the gate without a hug.”

It is amazing how many people after losing their spouse or mate one way or another, haven’t had a hug in a long time. Innocent hugs – nothing personal – just a “HI,” it’s good to see you again, or meet you for the first time.

Monday night potlucks, Tuesday trips to Palomas, Mexico for lunch, shopping, etc. Usually sharing rides and caravanning. Touring local areas on Wednesday, resting, or maybe watching movies. Thursday is eat out night (LEO), choosing different local restaurants each week, enjoying the excellent cuisine from all.

Friday and Saturday, or any other time, many are seeking out local dances. We have a nice leisure room for get together, watching TV, playing pool, and believe me we’ve some real pool sharks amongst us – not all men either.

In May of this year we will have been located here in Deming enjoying all kinds of weather for 20 years, and the warm friendship of the locals. This is mere sample of what we do amongst ourselves, and with the many visitors who come regularly.

It is a whole lot better than sitting at home by yourself, lonely, becoming a couch potato and wishing for some friendship and fellowship. Come see us sometime!
